Trouble is Our Business: Writing Crime Fiction - Code WCFGS1

This workshop with crime fiction author Guy Salvidge will interrogate a line-up of shady crime fiction suspects, including:

The Past is an Evil River – historical precedents including Raymond Chandler, Graham Greene, Patricia Highsmith and Jim Thompson.

The Art of Plotting Murder – how to start with a bang and keep the tension rising.

Criminal Characterisation – motivations and foibles for protagonists and antagonists alike.

Quick Deaths, Prolonged Deaths – the crime short story versus the crime novel.

Murder She Wrote – contemporary female crime authors like Megan Abbott and Candice Fox.

Guy Salvidge

Guy Salvidge's intermittently award-winning fiction has squirrelled its way into such esteemed publications as The Great Unknown, Westerly: New Creative, Award-Winning Australian Writing and Stories of Perth. His post-apocalyptic detective series, The Dying Rain and Other Forays into the Bramble Noir, was longlisted for the 2018 Carmel Bird Digital Literary Award. When he's not writing, Guy moonlights as an English teacher in rustic, rural Western Australia.
